The Final Close of “MM Capital Infrastructure Fund 2”

“MM Capital Infrastructure Fund 2” (hereinunder “the Fund”), a fund managed and operated by MM Capital Partners 2 Co., Ltd. (President & CEO: Tomohide Goto) (hereinunder “MMCP2”), made its final close on August 24, 2026.

Following its first close in August 2023, MMCP2 has widely solicited investors. Having received capital commitments from various institutional investors, including financial institutions, pension funds, and operating companies, the Fund has successfully achieved its initial target amount and will conclude raising capital from new investors with a total fund size of over 50 billion yen.

To date, the Fund has already completed the acquisitions of a hospital PPP asset in Italy, social infrastructure PPP assets in Australia, a rooftop solar PV equipment leasing business in Germany, and a renewable energy business in Portugal, and is steadily building a well-balanced, prime portfolio.

The Fund will continue to actively originate and evaluate investment opportunities to make further investments in prime infrastructure assets. Additionally, by ensuring stable operations and enhancing the profitability of our portfolio assets, we aim to contribute to a sustainable society.
